My First Meeting with Heifetz

I first met Heifetz in 1935, when I was a young music student. I was attending a concert at the Hollywood Bowl, and Heifetz was the soloist. I was immediately struck by his playing. His technique was impeccable, and his tone was so beautiful that it seemed to float through the air.

After the concert, I went backstage to meet Heifetz. I was nervous, but he was very kind and gracious. He signed my program and posed for a picture with me. I was so excited to have met him, and I knew that I would never forget the experience.
