What to Expect During and After Aesthetic Surgery in Gangnam

Before undergoing any aesthetic surgery procedure, it is important to have a consultation with a qualified surgeon. During the consultation, the surgeon will discuss your goals, assess your health, and recommend the best course of treatment.

On the day of surgery, you will be given anesthesia to ensure that you are comfortable during the procedure. The surgery itself will typically take several hours, depending on the complexity of the procedure.

After surgery, you will be taken to a recovery room where you will be monitored by a nurse. You may experience some pain and discomfort, which can be managed with medication. You will typically be able to go home the same day or the next day.

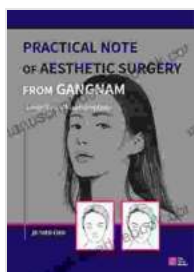

It is important to follow the surgeon's instructions carefully during the recovery period. This may include taking antibiotics, wearing compression garments, and avoiding strenuous activity. You will need to attend follow-up appointments with your surgeon to monitor your progress and ensure that you are healing properly.
