About the Book

In the tumultuous tapestry of medieval England, where power struggles and royal intrigue intertwined, there lived a queen whose name has been lost to the annals of history. Matilda of Flanders, the forgotten queen, was a woman of remarkable strength, resilience, and ambition. Her story is now brought to life in The Forgotten Queen, a captivating historical romance that unveils the secrets of her extraordinary reign.

Matilda, a princess from the powerful Flemish court, arrived in England as a young bride to King William the Conqueror. Thrust into a foreign land and a treacherous court, she faced countless challenges with unwavering determination. As she navigated the treacherous waters of royal politics, she found herself caught between her loyalty to her husband and her own desire for power.

The Forgotten Queen transports readers to a vibrant and perilous world where love, betrayal, and ambition collide. With vivid historical detail and captivating characters, the novel delves into the complexities of Matilda's life and the tumultuous era she ruled over.
